3.2. Activity(unread messages or missed call)

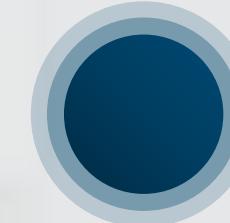

The screenshot shows a video conferencing interface with a sidebar and a main chat area. The sidebar on the left includes icons for Activity, Calendar, People, Chats, Files, and Meeting history. A red box highlights the 'Activity' icon, which has a red dot indicating unread activity. A red arrow points from this highlighted icon to a large red oval that encompasses the main video feed and the right-hand Chat window. The main video feed displays a whiteboard session with text boxes containing 'Test delete whiteboard session.', 'Test deleteTEXT', and 'Good morning colleagues.' The bottom of the video feed shows participants: You, Lindiwe Maake, Peter Miyambo, and Nsovo Ngobeni, along with a timestamp of 8:57 AM and a control bar with video, audio, and other meeting options. To the right, a Chat window titled 'Test Meeting 29' shows a poll asking 'What day is it today?' with three options: 14 March, 15 March, and 16 March. The 16 March option is selected. A message from Lindiwe Maake at 8:58 AM says 'Good morning colleagues.' Below the poll, a message from the user says 'I've submitted my vote'. At the bottom of the Chat window, there is a text input field with 'Type a new message' and a send button.

14.4. Meeting history icon – whiteboard button

The screenshot shows a software application window titled "Meeting history". On the left is a vertical sidebar with icons for Activity, Calendar, People, Chats, Files, and Meeting history (which is highlighted with a red box). The main area displays a table of meeting records. A red oval highlights the "Meeting history" column header. Another red oval highlights the "Whiteboard" column header, which is located at the far right of the table. Red arrows point from the "Meeting history" sidebar icon to the "Meeting history" column header, and from the "Meeting history" column header to the "Whiteboard" column header.
